

Israel and Germany: From Enmity to Friendship

20 Nov, 2015 (Fri)

12:30 pm- 1:30pm

CPD 2.19, Centennial Campus, HKU

In 2015, the State of Israel and the Federal Republic of Germany celebrate the 50th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries. The consuls-general of both countries will discuss the following questions among others:

- The politics of remembrance and critical reflection around the common trauma of the Shoah in Israel and Germany
- The reduction of historical tensions between two states with different political cultures and realities
- What does historical responsibility mean today? What are its consequences for foreign policy?
- What lessons can be learned from half a century of relations between Israel and Germany?
